

Facilitator Profile

John King
Facilitator
NPAG

John joined NPAG as an Associate Consultant in April 1998 after a number of years in Public Sector Management. He has also supported NPAG as acting Director and as Associate Business Manager helping to develop many new business opportunities including a range of risk management, business continuity and resilience services as well as new national groups – the most recent of which is the 2017 Security Network.

John has undertaken a number of major Consultancy projects with NPAG and independently including providing project management and consultancy support to a major multi-agency Best Value Review of Community Safety in Essex. The project was commended by the Audit Commission as ‘Best Practice’ when they reviewed the work on completion.

John is a Member of the Institute of Leadership and Management and former Secretary to the Emergency Planning Society’s Eastern Branch. In 2007 in recognition of his partnership working in the area of Emergency Planning, Essex County Council presented John with a Beacon Partner Award.

John currently facilitates four national NPAG groups – Car Parking and Travel Planning, Health, Safety and Risk Management, Health Visiting and School Health Services and Sustainability.
